Appreciation

Although this is our first and more than likely last Eaglette, we would like to thank Mr. Neddo for putting up with us for this long, if he had not agreed to help us start you probably would not be reading this paper at all. So thank you for trying Mr. Neddo.

Sincerely,
Members of the Eaglette.

As you can see this issue has been dedicated to our "old gang" and since you already know most of the members you might be interested in meeting someone about the organization. We will try to bring you up to date on a couple each month.

EDITORIAL.....

Dear Readers,

Take a good look at your teacher and tell me what you see. I think I can guess !!! At a first glance you see a tired, hairpulling, mixed up, raving maniac, ~~who~~ after a day of teaching a bunch of unorganized, unco-operative, unwilling kids. Of course we must remember that this is only a first glance and as we all know, a first glance can be misleading, so we will now take a closer, more elaborate look at this strange creature, we call teacher. This time we see a sight that makes us stop and think about what a teacher really is, not what we had supposed him to be! We first find that a teacher has feelings (hard to believe isn't it). To prove this I shall relate to you a story. It seemed that we had all received good marks on a difficult test (this is unusual for our class). Now if you think I was happy you should have seen the teacher! It seemed to me that this was very unusual because a teacher is supposed to sit in a dark room and do nothing for hours but think up dreadful tests and unending pages of homework! This teacher was actually smiling and seemed happy. I was confused until I learned that a teacher actually feels very proud if he can knock a lesson into our thick heads. I really don't blame them it seems QUITE an accomplishment to me. Have you ever wondered why teachers give homework? By now you should know that it is given for your benefit, do you think a teacher enjoys sitting up all hours of the night correcting papers? Have you ever noticed that although a teacher may have other things to do they will take a few minutes to help you with something you don't understand? It is hard to find the words to describe a teacher. I think I can sum it up in just four words, "parent-away-from-home". Someday you may never see them again and you may never get a chance to take a look that will make you understand how important a teacher is to you and your future. So take my advice, look at your teacher through opened eyes. Take a close look!

Assistant Editor

As you can see this issue has been dedicated to our faculty and since you already know most of the "old gang" wethought you might be interested in knowing something about the younger generation *. We will try to bring you up to date on a couple each month.

Here goessssss.....

Mr. Kenneth Rhodes

Mr. Kenneth Rhodes spent his early years in both California and Nobraska. He attended Union College of Lincoln Nobraska and even though he helped pay his way while working as an electrician he still found enough time to become a member of two honor societies. The Kappa Delta Pi and the Phi Delta Kappa.

Upon graduation Mr. Rhodes taught music at Church Related High School and did some professional singing at Jerome Himes Opera Association. He later became Dean of a boys private boarding school where he also taught history. He is now working toward his Doctors degree at Columbia University.

Mr. Rhodes is married and the father of two children; Michael, and John. He says that he enjoys teaching at Hadley-Luzerne very much and finds both students and faculty very congenial and cooperative.

Hope you stay with us a long time Mr. Rhodes.

Mr. Richard Rowell

Born, March 22, 1933, in Harmony, Maine.

He has a 7th grade homeroom and teacher in junior and senior high English.

He graduated from Harmony, Maine, did his first four years of undergraduate study at Farmington State Teachers College. He got his masters degree at the University of Maine. Completed his graduate course at Plattsburg and at Albany State Teachers College. He has had seven years of teaching at Argyle.

He is married and has two children.

Thus far, he has enjoyed this school very much and he appreciates the co-operation he has received from all the students and he enjoys the good humor of the faculty.

That's right kids he said our faculty had 2 "GOOD HUMOR!"

Mr. Rowell_-welcome and we're glad to have you here at H.L.C.S.

Clubs

At the present time there are only seven clubs that we have heard of. In this issue we are going to give you a short summary on two of the clubs, in the following issues we will go into further detail in the following clubs.

G.A.A. Math
Newspaper Future Teachers
Ski

French Club

The French Club is sponsored by Mr. Gazaille. The advanced members are working on a scrap book of the geography and history of France. The newer members are coming in and listening to records, tapes and speaking French with Mr. Gazaille and their fellow club members. This club is semi-formal and meets on either Wednesday or Thursday nights which ever the students prefer.

Science Club

The Science Club is sponsored by Mr. Ashline. The president is Ronald White. They are building a maze, so they can study the behavior of hamsters. They are also, doing research on hamsters and experimenting with them. With their extra time they are doing Current Science. There are about twenty members, anyone interested may join. This club meets every Wednesday night after school.

Boy Sports

Hi there,

I just got back from the boy's locker room and boy does it smell in there! I would think that after being in there for a month or so as I have someone would take notice. Oh! Pardon my rude thinking, but did I introduce myself? Well, if I did or did not, my name is the Imp with a capital I. I will be reporting on the sport events throughout the school year! Well as I was saying, I was sitting on top of a locker when all of a sudden, a whole mob of boys came into the haze filled locker room. Well as I sat there I heard that they were to have a great soccer team this year. Well I guess they were right, the Eagles have become victorious in almost all their games and are right now heading for the sectional games. If you're like me, I think we will win the sectionals! In the following space I have listed all the games, and their final scores.

And here they are:

Warrensburg	we won	2	to	1
Johnsburg	we lost	2	to	3
Lake George	we won	4	to	2
Warrensburg	we lost	0	to	2
Johnsburg	we won	3	to	0
Lake George	we won	3	to	2

Well I guess I'll head back to my dust corner but don't forget that we should become victorious not only in Soccer but in the other Sports played by our great eagles.

Well, I'll sign off for now, See ya in my next issue.

Girl Sports

GAA

Why? To give the girls a chance to compete against each other outside of gym class. Just as the boys do.

Where? In the gym.

Who holds it? Miss Stressel.

When? Tuesday nights after school.

The officers of GAA are:

President * Judy Crannell
Vice - President - Gloria Bourdeau
Secretary - Reta Shumen

GAA is open to all girls in grades 9 - 12. Members choose their own captains, teams, and team names. GAA members are now running a Volleyball and badminton. The winners of the Tournament will play 1 or 2 other schools.

After the badminton and volleyball tournaments will be a basketball tournament. The winning team of this tournament will also play 1 or 2 other schools.

In case you didn't know, GAA stands for GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION!

Well until next issue I'll say good-bye and
HAPPY READING!

Did you know that on the present sight of our dear old Alma mater, a building in which many famous people such as: Jimmy Walker, Veronica Lake, and Alfred E. Smith used to stay while on vacation in New York State. It was called the Wayside Inn.

Did you know that Luzerne was first settled shortly after the close of the French and Indian War.

Before being called Luzerne it was called Fairfield.

Did you know that the first Dude Ranch was built in Luzerne.

Today the roving reporter asks,
Are you in favor of having a gossip column in your school paper?

A tenth grader says yes because the gossip column
has all the latest news.

An eleventh grader says yes because it is interesting.

A twelfth grader says yes because it keeps everyone
posted on whats going on just as long as it is the truth.

A ninth grader says that she would like to have the gossip column as long as there are no names mentioned, because last year a lot of people had hurt feelings over things that sometimes were not true.

An eighth grader says yes because she likes to know the gossip.

If we have a next issue we hope to have a story or poem of the month. Grades 7-12 may participate. Hand your literature into Susan Ross of Mr. Gazaille's homeroom or Elaine Winslow of Mr. Webb's homeroom.
