Senior Class History

To most of the members of the senior class the four years of high school have been really enjoyable. Outside of a few trips to the office and several undone assignments everything has gone along smoothly.

Mr. Gilday led the class successfully the first year. The officers for that year were: President, Joe Lindsey; vice-president, George Deuel; and secretary-treasurer, Shirley Ogburn. Corliss Wood and Barbara Davidson were elected to the Student Council. Two parties were given by the class that year.

Miss Clark (Mrs. "Mike" Griffin) was chosen as the adviser for the second year, and under her guidance the senior class of that year was given a successful farewell party. Well over a hundred guests were present, and this party was one of the best ever given by us. That year the president was George Deuel; vice-president, Walter Hewitt; and secretary-treasurer, Millard Waite. Shirley Ogburn and Joe Lindsey represented the class on Student Council.

The junior year was anticipated with the Junior Prom in mind. A great deal of the time was spent on making it a success. Shirley Ogburn was the Prom Queen. The presidency that year was filled by George Deuel; vice-presidency, Joe Lindsey; and the office of secretary-treasurer, Jay Smead, after the resignation of Ray Denton. Jim Priddy and Dick Fowler were the Student Council members. Mr. Rosebrock ably advised the class throughout the year.

The trip to Washington was the high light of the fourth year. Everyone will always remember the good time that was had. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Traver were the chaperons, after being unanimously chosen by the class. The class wishes to extend its deep appreciation and thanks to the Board of Education and the taxpayers for financing the trip. George, Joe, and Jay were re-elected to their offices. Don McKenzie and Shirley Ogburn were the Student Council members. Miss Nightingale did a very fine job in both teaching and advising the class during the year.

Several of the class indulged in sports. Jim Priddy, Ray Denton, Dick Fowler, Bob Allen, George Deuel, Joe Lindsey and Don McKenzie represented the class in baseball, soccer, and basketball, while Bill Dingman, Myron Winslow, Lawrence Smead, and Ed Winslow went out for track. The girls have always played an important part in intramural sports. The class won the trophy twice for being the champions in interclass sports.

The years for the class to be together as a group are at an end, and so each one bids a fond farewell to his Alma Mater.

JUNIOR CLASS

Back row: G. Ackley, H. Fiske, A. Brewer, W. Hawk, E. Salmon.

Center row: H. Hall, M. Tubbs, J. Tubbs, N. Perkins, J. Brown, B. O'vitt, D. Hurd.

Front row: E. Baker, J. Gill, Miss Eaton, adviser, F. O'Hare.

The junior class under the leadership of Miss Eaton has been quite active throughout the school year 1940-1941. An election in the fall gave the honors of offices as follows: President, George Ackley; vice-president, Fred O'Hare; secretary-treasurer, Janette Gill. In the middle of the year Fred O'Hare took over the duties of president and Emerson Baker was elected vice-president.

Arthur Brewer was chosen as representative to the Student Court while Leon Ormsby and Norman Perkins were elected to the Student Council. Wayne Hawk is to be the representative from H. L. C. S. to Boys' State in Syracuse this summer.

The crowning point of the year's activities was the Junior Prom which was held Friday, May 16, at the Grange Hall. It turned out to be a great success. Harold Higgins' orchestra supplied the music while Art Pratt furnished the calling for the square dancing. "Manie" Tubbs was elected Prom Queen by a ballot of those in attendance and was presented with a corsage. The Prom was well attended making possible the realization of a profit.

One other party was held by the juniors on November 1 in the Town Hall. It was a Hallowe'en party featuring both round and square dancing.

The class was pleased when it discovered it had royalty in its midst. Norm Perkins was elected "King of the Winter Carnival" and reigned for two days.

The juniors though regretting that it will be their last year at H. L. C. S. are nevertheless looking forward to 1941-1942 with great expectation.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Top row: M. Cowles, W. Hastings, M. Shiels, G. Mosher, G. Sutliff, R. Bosford, G. Weiss, W. Hastings, K. Waite.

Center row: E. Fuller, D. Signor, R. Hayes, J. Andrews, P. Smead, J. Ramsey, R. Tucker, G. Stolle, L. Jenkins, E. Wood, J. Smith, J. Smead.

Front row: M. Davis, Jacqueline Smead, Rex Cotherman, M. Parker, Mr. Nelson, advisor, H. Denton, D. Mudge, E. Eisen.

The sophomores under the supervision of Mr. Nelson, the class adviser, elected the following officers: President, Rex Cotherman; vice-president, Henry Denton; secretary-treasurer, Madge Parker. The Student Council members were Elizabeth Wood and Kingsley Waite.

Two very enjoyable parties were held during the year at the Town Hall.

Gloria Stolle rose to great heights of royalty when she was elected by the student body to rule with the King as "Queen of the Winter Carnival."

The class took a trip in May. They went through the Radio Center and had the opportunity of listening to the "Children's Hour," one of the well-known programs. They also visited the Capitol and Education Buildings.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Top row: M. York, C. Smith, W. Bennett, G. Bosford, G. Ackley, G. Smead, L. York.
 Third row: L. Allen, G. O'Hare, A. Eddy, S. Fuller, M. Tubbs, V. Brewer, I. Eddy, M. Bragg, J. Bethel, J. Kotler.
 Second row: G. Bethel, L. Walker, L. Fuller, T. Fuller, C. Wyman, J. Caldwell, W. Monahan, R. Dingman, E. Mosher, W. Perkins.
 First row: E. York, M. Coules, S. Eastwood, E. Coombs, M. Weiss, S. Dingman, Mr. Rosebrock, adviser, B. Eckert, B. Harris, P. Been.

The officers of the freshman class were elected as follows: President, Loren Dingman; vice-president, Beverly Eckert; and secretary-treasurer, Mary Weiss. Up until Christmas time the class was under the leadership of Miss Johnson. During her absence because of illness Mr. Rosebrock assumed her duties.

The class enjoyed the advantages of two trips during the year. In October Troy was the destination where the class visited the radio station WABY and the state museum in Albany. In May visits to the radio station WGY and the Fro-Joy Ice Cream Factory in Schenectady were the purposes of a trip.

Two annual evening parties and a few during class meetings have been held, keeping the class socially active.

The class has been very pleased in the number of points realized in sports competition.

EIGHTH GRADE

Top row: K. Deuel, S. Hill, C. Shuman, P. Gardener, D. Goodness, A. Ramsey, R. Cotherman, W. Smead, J. Perkins.

Third row: A. Dean, L. Eddy, H. Allen, G. LaMoy, G. Bosford, A. Archer, J. Rozelle, M. Grimes, Caroline Shuman, M. Taylor.

Second row: J. Morehouse, B. Allen, I. Walker, M. Smead, K. Kingsley, M. Eisen, Miss Lindros, adviser, L. Smith, S. Bethel, B. Brown, M. White, C. Hart.

Front row: D. Scott, W. Frazier, W. Brown, L. Wyman, H. Stone, H. LeBarron.

At the first meeting the eighth grade elected the following class officers: President, Mary Eisen; vice-president, Lois Smith; and secretary-treasurer, Katherine Kingsley. Joyce Rozell and William Frazier were chosen as representatives to the Student Council; Grace LaMoy and William Brown, to the Service Committee. Miss Lindros was the class adviser.

The programs for class meetings were prepared by a Home Room Program Committee appointed by the president, and changed in the middle of the year.

The class took a trip in the spring on May 24 to Schenectady and Albany. The State buildings were visited in Albany; the radio station WGY and the Fro-Joy Ice Cream factory, in Schenectady.

Several parties were conducted during the year besides the two regular class parties.

At the Winter Carnival Joyce Rozell was captain of the girls' skating team and Bob Cotherman of the boys'. The class was victorious over the seventh grade in the activities in which they participated.

In the spring the class took part in a Minstrel Show directed by Miss Lindros and Miss Vogt. It drew many laughs as the class hoped it would.

SEVENTH GRADE

Top row: R. Pecore, D. Allen, D. Norse, F. Van Dusen, T. Wendell, A. Wendell, L. Hastings, F. Paul.

Fourth row: E. Plasley, N. Hughes, J. Flanders, B. Boeford, E. Fyfe, M. Ormsby, S. Champagne.

Third row: W. White, B. Allen, F. Evans, V. Larabee, J. Goodness, N. Hastings, B. Goodness, G. Perkins, M. LeBarron, N. Pulver.

Second row: M. Walker, E. York, B. Champagne, S. Hayrs, R. Rozell, Miss Vogt, adviser, D. Masner, M. Westcott, D. Burnham.

Front row: F. Gardner, A. Been, R. Miller, R. Bethel, P. Champagne, K. Monohan.

The class of forty seventh graders elected the following officers in October: President, Reta Rozell; vice-president, Dale Masner; secretary-treasurer, Jean Flanders. In the absence of Jean Flanders, Shirley Hayes was later elected secretary-treasurer. Grace Perkins and Richard Miller were elected as representatives to Student Council. Eleanor Fyfe and Fay Paul were appointed Service Committee members.

A Hallowe'en party, Christmas party, and spring party were held during the year. Refreshments were served and games were played at each party. Guests were welcomed at two of them, the other being a home-room party.

The class went on an interesting trip to Albany. On this trip many beautiful and worthwhile places were visited which filled minds with cheery thoughts and memories.

STUDENT COURT

J. Smith, J. Roilder, A. Brewer, P. Stanton, B. Fowler, D. Scott.

The Student Court of the Hadley-Luzerne Central School had its second year of experience during 1940-1941.

The duties of the court are to hear all complaints, to give decisions, and impose penalties on students who break the rules of the Traffic Committee or Service Committee. Cases tried this year were brought in by the Service Committee.

The court was composed of seven members chosen by the Student Council Executive Committee with the advice of the faculty. The members of the court this year were Dick Fowler, Chief Justice, Polly Stanton, secretary, Beulah White, Arthur Brewer, John Smith, Joyce Roilder, and Daniel Scott. The court was advised by Mr. Stanley.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Another year has rolled by, making the fourth in a series of successes for the Student Council. Miss Johnson and Mr. Townsend were at the helm as advisers and Miss Lindros ably assisted during Miss Johnson's illness. The officers of the Student Council and Student Association were as follows: president, James Priddy; vice-president, Norman Perkins; secretary, Shirley Ogburn; and treasurer, Donald McKenzie. The class representatives to the Student Council were as follows: seniors, Shirley Ogburn and Donald McKenzie; juniors, Norman Perkins and Leon Ormsby; sophomores, Elizabeth Wood and Kingsley Waite; freshman, Betty Harris and Robert Dingman; eighth grade, Joyce Rozell and William Brown; and seventh grade, Grace Perkins and Richard Miller. The school activities were carried out under the supervision of various committees guided by Student Council.

The Finance Committee consisted of Donald McKenzie and Mr. Nelson, faculty adviser. This committee levied a student tax to meet its budget for the year. This tax gave students the right to hold office, to attend the Student Association meetings, and to vote in the elections. It also allowed free admittance and transportation to and from the basketball games.

The Service Committee was composed of two students from each class. This committee was very active in preserving order in the halls, in the home rooms and on the playground. Rules were adopted and posted in each home room. This committee had Mr. Castle as faculty adviser and Robert Dingman as Student Council representative.

The Sports Committee made a very satisfactory schedule for interclass sports. The Winter Carnival and Field Day featured the high lights of the season. Mr. Townsend acted as adviser and Norm Perkins was the Student Council representative.

The Assembly Committee composed of Joyce Rozell, Student Council representative, Miss Allerdice and Miss Eaton, made a schedule for carrying out the assembly programs.

The Clubs committee with Leon Ormsby, Student Council representative, and Mr. Rosebrock, faculty adviser, made out a social calendar for the junior and senior high school. The Clubs Committee also had charge of the radio for noon hour dancing and class parties.

The Traffic Committee, composed of Mr. Rosebrock, faculty adviser, and Kingsley Waite, Student Council member, took care of the classes passing in the halls, on the stairs, and during fire drills.

NEWSPAPER CLUB

Back row: P. Gardner, R. Fowler, H. Piske, J. Smead, R. Allen.

Center row: F. Brans, B. Pixley, E. Joyce, J. Andrews, M. Rodder, N. Perkins, V. Brewer, P. Stanton, I. LeBaron, S. Ogburn, Frances Hart.

Front row: L. Smith, Florence Hart, C. Wood, Miss Nightingale, adviser, Miss Eaton, adviser, Mr. Nelson, adviser, B. Harris, B. Eckert.

The "Hi Lights" staff of the year 1940-1941 endeavored to give to the students of H. L. C. S. a newspaper that improved as well as retained the high standards of accuracy and individuality of the previous years. The staff hoped to issue a magazine that displayed the literary achievements of the students and went in search of contributors. Great emphasis was placed on this with a very gratifying result.

The paper could not have existed but for the steady efforts of the reporters who handled the class news, club news, and sports.

The club was advised by Miss Nightingale, Miss Eaton, and Mr. Nelson. The proof-readers aimed for perfection under the supervision of Miss Eaton; the typists and mimeographers did a commendable piece of work under the guidance of Mr. Nelson of the commercial department; Corliss Wood surpassed his fine work of last year in setting up the paper, receiving expert advice from Miss Nightingale; Shirley Ogburn contributed most of the art that made the paper more artistic and attractive, receiving her guidance from Miss Stroup of the art department.

CHORUS and ORCHESTRA

Back row: J. Brown, G. O'Hare, J. Andrews, J. Flanders, M. Roider, J. Tubbs, M. Tubbs, H. Hall, J. Gill.

Fourth row: Jacqueline Smead, F. Evens, I. Walker, A. Eddy, A. Caldwell, B. O'Neil, E. Fyfe, G. LaMoy, B. Bosford, A. Archer, K. Kingsley, M. Grimes, I. Eddy, C. Winslow, M. Taylor, E. Gilbert, F. Hart, M. Cowles.

Third row: L. Smith, M. Westcott, B. Brown, J. Morehouse, S. Hayes, B. Allen, A. Dean, J. Rozelle, M. Weiss, G. Perkins, R. Rozelle, B. Goodness, S. Champagne, C. Shumar, B. Eckert, S. Bethel, I. Hall, D. Burnham, B. Champagne.

Second row: M. Eisen, J. Roider, L. Lambert, L. Eddy, B. Davidson, Florence Hart, E. Fuller, Miss Allerdice, director, D. Signor, N. Hastings, Janice Smead, D. Mudge, E. Burnham, C. Hart.

Front row: D. Goodness, Jay Smead, H. Stone, N. Pulver, M. Walker, P. Butler, I. Scott, G. Cranston, F. Gardner, P. Gardner.

During the year 1940-1941, the High School Chorus of twenty-five members and the Junior High Chorus of thirty members each met regularly once a week. The junior high group, which made its first appearance at the September meeting of the P. T. A., took an active part in programs during the year. It appeared at several school assemblies and Parent Teacher meetings and furnished music for the annual Christmas programs. Members of both choral groups combined to sing at commencement.

The personnel of the orchestra this year included the following: Violins, Jean Andrews, Joyce Rozell, Beverly Eckert, Maxine Cowles, Mary Weiss, Isabel Hall, Gertrude O'Hare, Alberta Archer, Isabella Eddy; clarinets, Jay Smead, Florence Evens, Beverly Brown, Jeanne Flanders; mellophones, Barbara Davidson, Philip Gardner; trumpets, Norman Pulver, Doris Mudge, George Cranston; saxophone, Patty Butler; drums, Frederick Gardner; and piano, Harriet Hall.

During the past year, a large number of school students participated in the local firemen's band. Student members included the following: Clarinets, Norman Perkins, Jay Smead, Florence Evens, Barbara Evens, Wayne Perkins, Beverly Brown, Jeanne Flanders; trumpets, Norman Pulver, Doris Mudge, George Cranston, Clyde Rollman, John Fyfe, Norma Hastings; trombones, Janice Smead, Florence Hart; mellophones, Barbara Davidson, Philip Gardner; saxophone, Rex Cotherman; drums, Fred Gardner. Members of the band played in the Memorial Day parade and will appear at the regular summer concerts.

 Center: D. McKenzie, W. Hawk, N. Perkins, J. Priddy, C. Wood, W. Dingman.
 Front row: F. O'Hare, R. Denton, captain, E. Townsend, coach, J. Lindsey, M. Cowles.

The Blue and White Eagles of Hadley-Luzerne annexed their first soccer championship. This was not only the crown for the county, but also for Section 2, New York Public High School Athletic Association, of Eastern New York. Turning out a good soccer team every year, Coach Townsend finally received the honor due him, by having a championship team. He deserves much credit for his fine coaching.

The team had a very good defensive record, being scored upon only once in the regular league play and once in a play-off for the county crown.

The team included Ray Denton, captain, Jim Priddy, Henry Denton, Jack Tunney, Dick Fowler, Joe Lindsey, Norm Perkins, Fred O'Hare, Robert Allen, Corliss Wood and Wayne Hawk. Substitutes were Don McKenzie, Grant Bethel, Wayne Perkins, Melvin Cowles, and Bill Dingman.

The team's record for the year:

EAGLES	OPPONENT	SCORE	EAGLES	OPPONENT	SCORE
1	Schuylerville	0	4	Burnt Hills	0
2	South High	0	2	Corinth	1
0	Ballston Spa	1	4	Mayfield	0
1	Corinth	0	2	Schoharie	0
1	Billwater	0

The Eagles' basketball record was rather overshadowed by the success of soccer. The team won four and lost ten. The calibre of the team seemed to vary considerably throughout the season. At times they seemed like champions, and at other times like first graders. Nevertheless the team had fight and enjoyed making the best teams show their best, now and then beating a less-impressive team.

The team seemed to hold its own during each first half against the best teams, but the second half always proved to be their downfall. In Schuylerville the score was tied at the third quarter, and the Black Horses had to call upon Lady Luck for some of their long set shots on the small court. The Eagles had an even series with their rivals, Corinth, each winning one.

On the team were Norm Perkins and Dick Fowler co-captains, Ray Denton, Jim Priddy, Fred O'Hare, Henry Denton, and Wayne Hawk.

The team's record for the year:

EAGLES	OPPONENT	SCORE	EAGLES	OPPONENT	SCORE
26	Ballston	19	23	Ballston Spa	39
14	Corinth	17	28	Corinth	30

BASEBALL

Although the H. L. C. S. baseball team was a victim of tough breaks, the team played good ball and won three games with four losses.

Norm Perkins, hard hitting first baseman, was unable to play because of a wrist injury. Ken Deuel and Hank Denton were injured while playing and could not finish the season.

TRACK

Back row: M. York, G. Smead, G. Bosford, E. Nelson, Couch, R. Bosford, C. Ackley, R. Cocherman.

Center row: A. Tucker, W. Hastings, W. Hastings, M. Cowles, E. Winslow, E. Baker, W. Dingman, L. Jenkins, M. Shiel.

The track team lost many of last year's members but new men helped build up the squad. The team had four meets, two with Schuylerville, and two with South Glens Falls. They won the first meet with South High, but lost the rest.

The team was well supplied with runners but there was a shortage of jumpers. The track team entered the annual Section 2 Class D meet at Johnstown.

Members of the team were H. Monahan, D. Tucker, W. Hastings, Wm. Hastings, L. Fuller and R. Hayes.

Camera Club

During the winter the Camera Club presented an assembly on "The History of Photography." In the spring a "Picture Party" was held. Each person enclosed his picture in the especially designed invitations.

The members of the club included Adelbert Tucker, Leslie York, Beulah White, Clara Winslow, Edna Gilbert, Dorothy Hurd, Rex Cotherman, Fred O'Hare, Melvin Cowles, Clarence Smith, Mary Weiss, Marguerite Tubbs, and John Smith.

Puppet Club

The Puppet Club has been active this year under the supervision of Miss Stroup. The officers elected for the year were Katherine Kingsley, president, and Lois Smith, secretary. Three committees were formed, giving charge of sewing to Joyce Rozell, painting to Mary Eisen, and carpentry to Charles Shuman.

A play, "Goblins! That's a Laugh!" written by Gertrude O'Hare, was presented to the Parent Teachers Association and the school assembly. All costumes, scenery, puppets and stage sets were made by the club members.

Chef's Club

The Chef's Club, an informal club for boys, was not restricted to seniors and post graduates as it was last year. There was a meeting every Friday at which the members cooked their lunch during activity period and ate it during the lunch hour.

A few meetings were devoted to sewing, and there were a few in which etiquette was discussed. The members were Jay Smead, Philo Smead, Lawrence Smead, Wayne Perkins, Truman Fuller, Robert Dingman, and Kingsley Waite. The club adviser was Miss Scriven.

Several guests were invited to the lunches. Their approval of the cooking was expressed enthusiastically, much to the delight of the members.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1941 of the Hadley Luzerne Central School, of the County of Warren, of the State of New York, being of sound body, mind, memory and understanding, and with all of our debts paid, do make, publish, and declare the following to be our last will and testament:

Article 1. We, the Class of 1941, will to the faculty a happy and restful vacation. May they enjoy every minute of it.

Article 2. We, the Seniors, bequeath to the rest of the school our love and appreciation of HLCS.

Article 3. We, the Seniors, do bequeath the following individuals with carefully chosen gifts.

Ellen Joyce bestows her place in the typing room to June Brown.

Iona LeBarron bequeaths her wavy hair to Addie Caldwell.

Bessie Pixley bequeaths her profitable library position to Dot Hurd.

Shirley Ogburn leaves her versatility to any junior whose ambition is to do the most for his school.

Elizabeth Buchanan wishes to remind all junior girls of the significance of the third finger—left hand.

Marg Reider wills her career as cheer leader to Harriet Hall.

Lawrence Cowler leaves his outside work to his brother.

Bill Dingman wills his track ability to Norm Perkins.

Lawrence Smead leaves his good nature to Leon Ormsby.

George Douel leaves his steady influence to next year's senior class president.

Bob Allen wills his theory "You can't love one" to Art Brewer.

Bob Allen hands down his secret on "How to vamp the opposite sex" to George Ackley.

Jay Smead leaves his ten volumes of puns and wisecracks to Forkie O'Hare.

Barbara Davidson wills the address of those fellows that "Uncle Sam" now has in training to Dot Hurd.

Clara Winslow leaves her ability to apply make-up to Addie Caldwell.

Millard Waffe leaves his silent disposition to Harley Fisk.

Brulah White bestows her social calendar to Mante Tubbs.

Ray Denton wills his power to away the teachers to Emerson Baker.

Charles Hovey bequeaths his spending money for cigarettes to Leon Ormsby to buy mouse traps.

Jim Priddy wills his evening strolls past the Grange Hall to anybody that can get away with it.

Joe Lindsey leaves his impartial interest in all the girls to their perspective boy friends.

Corliss Wood wills his back homework to anyone in the freshman class to be completed in the next three years.

Edna Gilbert gives her good nature to the sophomores so they will be able to endure next year's seniors.

Henry Howe leaves his hearty laugh to Blanche Ovitt.

Donald McKentle wills his "freak" haircuts to anyone who has the courage to wear their hair that way.

Dick Fowler leaves his "Early to Bed, Early to Rise" motto to Wayne Hawk.

Myron Winslow bestows his quietness to Janette Gill.

Henry Howe and Ed Winslow hope they leave their interest in a couple of sophomores to no one.
