HADLEY - LUZERNE CENTRAL SCHOOL

STUART M. TOWNSEND, Supervising Principal
LAKE LUZERNE, N. Y.

THE EDITORS' MESSAGE

We, the editors, of the 1967 "Highlights" trust that we have successfully fulfilled our obligation of including a content of cordial and notable interest for everyone.

We would like to express our heartfelt acknowledgment to Mr. Donald Racette, yearbook adviser, whose diligent, patient, and vivacious personality made this yearbook largely what it is. We would also desire to pay creditworthy tribute to the members of this yearbook staff for their devotion to this endeavor.

In behalf of the senior class, we extend its gratitude and appreciation to the members of the Hadley-Luzerne Central School Faculty for their truly sagacious guidance they devoted to each and everyone of us.

During the construction of this annual it is our hope that the time was as pleasurable for Mr. Racette as it was profitable for us. We hope that "Highlights" has captured those cherishable memories of this school year at Hadley-Luzerne Central for all our subscribers.

Sincerely yours,

THE EDITORS

AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR PARENTS

Dear Mother and Dad,

I'll never forget that warm September morning when you walked me to the end of the driveway, handed me a brown paper bag, and despite my energetic protests forced me to board a big yellow monster that I would wait for, run to and sometimes miss during the next twelve years. As I recall I was crying, and if I'm not mistaken, when I rushed to the bus window to catch one last glimpse of you I saw tears in your eyes too, although you waved reassuringly!

I guess I finally got used to the idea, and for the next six years became engrossed in all the wonders of life that were opened up to me. I discovered that my teacher had the key to a vast treasure chest that contained valuable knowledge. To induce her to open it, all I had to do was ask questions (and then come home and ask you more, perhaps becoming indignant if you didn't know the answers!)

Before I knew it I ended up in Junior High. You remember that stage don't you? I was an awkward, self-conscious, daydreamer!

Those two years flew and magically I found myself in High School. That's when I learned how to work, and compete, and worry! In between cramming my sometimes muddled head with information, I managed to care about my appearance, date, and talk you into letting me have the family car every Friday night!

Through all those years of turmoil you were so understanding (well most of the time anyway) and now that I'm graduating and making preparations for my debut in the adult world, I really don't know what to say to you in parting, except "thank you" and "don't worry, I'll be a big success someday--I'll have to be, because after all I'm your child, and you're the most successful parents in the world!

HADLEY - LUZERNE CENTRAL SCHOOL

STUART M. TOWNSEND, Supervising Principal
LAKE LUZERNE, N. Y.

Dear Seniors:

It is with pleasure that I extend my congratulations to you, the Class of 1967, upon your graduation from high school. This moment, I know, is worth the effort and sacrifices you have made.

The time has now arrived when you must take your place in a world community. This means you must find your place in this world, living where you will be useful and happy.

To reach your next milestone will take additional effort and sacrifice on your part. It is our earnest hope that we, your faculty, your parents, and your community have helped you prepare yourselves for this task.

May you be successful in your undertakings and happy in your daily living.

Sincerely,

Stuart M. Townsend

Poor help, Elaine Winslow

"I never knew there were children who'd never been read to."

Project Head Start pinpoints the importance of preparing a child for his first awesome year at school. International Paper tells how reading can help

PROJECT Head Start is the toddler's zone in America's quest for a land of equality and opportunity.

Head Start volunteers report how startled they are to discover thousands of children like the little boy in our photograph. Children who are rarely read to, or spoken to.

Some children never ask why the sky is blue. Their curiosity has never been awakened. And when they do learn to read, they are usually years behind their classmates.

This project works with children who need to overcome the handicap of poverty.

But youngsters from any background or neighborhood can benefit.

Here's how you can set up a Project Head Start at home to help prepare your own child for reading.

Begin by talking to your child when he's an infant. The sound of your voice will help him develop his talking skills faster. Children who talk well usually become good readers.

Take time to read to him. He will be flattered by your undivided attention, and emotionally reassured.

When you read, let him participate by holding the book and looking at the pictures. Encourage questions. They broaden your child's horizons.

Talk to your child. Read to him. Encourage his curiosity. These three simple steps will help give him a head start at school—and help prepare him for the lifelong joys of reading.

"Send me a man who reads!"

A series by International Paper

International Paper makes all kinds of paper products. Everything from frozen-food cartons to printing papers.

I-P believes the most important thing that's ever done with paper is putting words on it.

This series is I-P's contribution to the cause of reading.

everybody giving you advice?

When you graduate from high school, everybody seems to offer a lot of advice like:

Go in the Peace Corps.
Go in VISTA.
Get married.
Don't get married.

Get a job.
Go to college.
Join the Army.
Join the Navy.

Et cetera.

So, we thought we should offer some advice too; however, try as we might, we can't improve on this written by English poet, George Crabbe:

"My son, be good."

Now one decision remains for you to make
What are you going to be good at?
