ADVERTISEMENTS

*The story you are about to read is true.
The names have not been changed, time alone will change them. Passing years will make familiar places strange and today's happenings memories. Let you should forget any of it, here is our saga, which began long ago as we entered the grades hand in hand.*

How do you find words to express thanks to a man who has devoted his professional life to one school, one community? Mr. Stuart Townsend has grown with and been a prime mover in the growth of Hadley-Luzerne Central School. Throughout his professional career he has taught and administered at H-L and has been responsible for its growth throughout those years. Our senior class has had the pleasure to work with and under the direction of Mr. Townsend from Kindergarten to our upcoming graduation. His interest has been continual and complete. As he plans his retirement we know that we speak for past classes at H-L in saying that he will be deeply missed.

Years from now, we wonder if the names will be important. Will we remember people like Mr. Zimmermann, Mr. Trottier, Mr. Friday, Mr. Abbott, and Mr. Decker as science teachers. Will we think of math when we hear Mr. Manley, Mr. Root, and Mr. Spensieri. Will we be thankful for the English language when our thoughts come across Mr. Clark, Mr. Corkland, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. McMurry, Miss Smith, and Mrs. Root. Will we think of Mr. Madden on the Northway or hear music when we hear Miss Parillo, Mr. Davis, or Miss Finerty. Will we have time in the business world to recall Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Pensel, and Mrs. Sullivan. Will a work of art bring Mr. Otoupal to mind, or a foreign visitor, Mr. Gazaille and Mrs. Hehr. As housewives, how often will we remember Mrs. Varney; or when we work with our hands, will the names Mr. Roach and Mr. Finlayson mean anything to us. As we huff and puff through our lives, will we recall what Mr. Hanlon, Mr. Taft, and Miss Urband taught us. Will aches and pains bring comforting thoughts of Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Garlen. And when it comes to the serious business of thinking, speaking, and communicating, will the names Dr. Murdock, Mr. Rowell, Mrs. Knuth, and Mr. Racette flash into our minds. Or... will their caring and understanding outlast their titles. We think so, for we will remember them as we see them here.
