The members of the staff of the High Lights entered enthusiastically into the task of producing a newspaper which would be of real service and enjoyment to students of our school. It is the first time that a publication has appeared regularly every month, and this annual is also the first of its kind to be attempted in the history of the school. The 1934-'35 staff sincerely hopes that the publication will be continued in future years.

Student Council

The following are the Student Council officers: President, Jim Williams; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Hall.

Members of the Council for 1934-'35 are as follows: Seniors, John Liebl and Maude Gilroy; Juniors, Jim Williams and Ruth Hall; Sophomores, Dorothy Dean and Arthur Pratt; Freshmen, Elsie Mann and Richard Hurd; Seventh and eighth grades, Geraldine Selaro and Thomas Priddy.

The Student Council played an active part in the school throughout the year. It has been of much aid to the students and faculty in conducting and running activities of the school. They have been responsible for managing many important programs, of which the most outstanding are: High school assemblies; sponsorship of two school dances, one at Taylor's Hall and the other at the Hadley Town Hall; securing an activity period of forty-five minutes in length twice a week; the procuring of the high school Christmas tree; the organization of a dramatic club, and the sponsoring of an amateur assembly.

Handicraft Club

The handicraft club under the supervision of Miss English has been a prosperous club this past year. It was organized for the purpose of making useful articles of a somewhat artistic nature. The club planned to devote half of the available time to weaving baskets and the remainder to making Christmas cards, Christmas wreathes, book marks, and paper flowers. A few individuals wished to try their luck at block printing.

The first few meetings were devoted to cutting and twisting paper strips into a tight rope. Later a frame work was constructed from stove wire and about the frame work paper was woven.

Each club member selected a different color scheme for his project. Much talent and skill was manifested among the various individuals as they shaped their baskets to conform with their individual tastes.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club, under the supervision of John Brennan, was founded rather late in the year. The number of students who chose this club was inadequate for the carrying on of any full program. However, the club did manage to delve a bit into dramatic technique.

The aims of the club were as follows: To further any interest the students might have in plays; to create a more active interest in the reading of modern plays, to acquire some knowledge of acting, costuming, stage make-up, and model stage and scenery making.

The club worked on several one-act plays, "The Grand Cham's Diamond," by Allan Monkhouse, and "Finder's Keepers," by George Kelley. This gave some actual practice in acting, and moreover, much pleasure.

Orchestra and Glee Club

The orchestra and glee club have been very active throughout the year under the successive leadership of Mrs. M. De Forest Lowen and Miss Doris Allerdice.

The orchestra made their inaugural appearance at a recent program and was well received by the students and public. They will undoubtedly do one or two numbers at graduation.

The glee club successfully presented the operetta, "Green Cheese," in December. This spring the club participated in the Adirondack League Music Festival at Bolton.

Home Nursing

A course in Home Nursing was offered to the girls during the past semester by Miss Elizabeth Keenan, Warren County nurse. As a result, the girls are quite adept at temperature reading, taking care of a sick person, general care of babies, and making beds properly. Miss Keenan also distributed valuable pamphlets to the students.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected by the class: President, Joanna Mann; vice president, Maude Gilroy, and secretary, Virginia Tully.
